

COLLEGE RESOURCES: A COMMUNITY WORKING TOGETHER FOR STUDENTS

College is an exciting adventure: a time for new friends, new experiences, and new discoveries.

For every step of your journey as a UChicago College student, the College's team of dedicated professionals works together to support you. Resources range from academics to athletics, career planning to cultural immersion, research to recreation, study abroad to study breaks, and more.

Use this guide (also available online at college.uchicago.edu/navigating-college) to learn more about student support around campus and explore UChicago more broadly to find many other opportunities across our academic departments and offices.

One College, Many Resources

Plan Your Classes and Major

- College Academic Advising Office
- Major / Minor Program Directors
- Summer Session
- Office of the University Registrar

Get Academic Support

- Academic Office Hours
- Center for College Student Success
- College Core & Writing Tutor Program
- Student Disability Services

Apply Your Academics in the Real World

- Career Advancement
- College Center for Research and Fellowships
- Jeff Metcalf Internship Grant
- UChicago Institutes and Centers

Explore Culture and Identity

- Center for Identity + Inclusion
- Office of International Affairs
- Study Abroad Office
- Chicago Studies

Make New Friends

- Housing & Residence Life
- Registered Student Organizations
- UChicago Mentoring Program

Get Involved in the Community

- Center for Leadership & Involvement
- Office of Civic Engagement
- UGo Daytime and Nightride Shuttles

Promote Physical, Mental and Spiritual Health

- Athletics & Recreation
- Spiritual Life
- UChicago Student Wellness

Find Holistic Support

- College Student Support in the Office of the Dean of Students
- Dean-on-Call Program
- Office of the Bursar
- Student Ombuds Office
- UChicago Financial Aid
- Veteran Services and ROTC

COLLEGE RESOURCES: OFFICE CONTACT INFORMATION

College Academic Advising Office

Every student in the College is assigned to an academic adviser, a full-time professional in the College Academic Advising Office who helps undergraduates pursue their academic interests and plan a program of study leading to a degree. Beyond academics, advisers also provide guidance on pursuits outside of the classroom and help students align their academic choices with emerging career goals.

Email: collegeadvising@uchicago.edu | Director: Kathy Forde | Website: college.uchicago.edu/advising/college-academic-advising-office

Major/Minor Program Directors

Complementing the breadth of UChicago's Core Curriculum are 53 majors and 59 minors, as well as dozens of areas of specialized study and pre-professional preparation, all part of the UChicago undergraduate experience. Major and Minor program directors are available to assist students in decisions related to course work. To learn more and locate specific program directors, visit college.uchicago.edu/academics/programs-study.

Summer Session

The Summer Session Quarter, which includes Summer Session and September Term, provides opportunities for students to enroll in Core, major, and other classes that fulfill degree requirements, allowing students to advance in their studies. Courses are offered remotely and in-person, and are scheduled in the mornings, afternoons, and evenings to give students variety and flexibility. Financial Aid is available for eligible students.

Email: summersession@uchicago.edu | Executive Director: Maria Lettiere | Website: summer.uchicago.edu

Office of the University Registrar

The Office of the University Registrar helps students by providing services that assist them in their time on campus and in their transition after their academic program is complete. Student services are offered through the my.UChicago portal, which is the student one-stop shop for biographic and demographic updates (including preferred name, pronouns of reference, and name pronunciation), degree planning and degree audits, schedule of classes and registration, course feedback, grades, transcripts, and enrollment certifications.

Email: registrar@uchicago.edu | Associate Vice President: Scott Campbell | Website: registrar.uchicago.edu

Academic Office Hours

College faculty and teaching assistants hold regular office hours to assist students with course questions, assignments, and projects. Office hour schedules vary: you can use the College Catalog (collegecatalog.uchicago.edu) to find your major's website and faculty contact information. Deans, directors, and department chairs can be found at provost.uchicago.edu/deans-and-department-chairs.

Center for College Student Success

Located on the 4th floor of Harper Memorial Library, the Center for College Student Success (CCSS) empowers First-Generation and/or Lower-Income (FLI) students in the College, providing resources and tools that promote student success, and programming and community events that build positive self-identity and a sense of belonging.

Email: ccss@uchicago.edu | Director: Talaya LeGette | Website: college.uchicago.edu/student-services/center-college-student-success

College Core & Writing Tutor Program

The College Core Tutor Program is a peer-based tutoring program for College students, designed to provide one-on-one assistance and small group support in scientific and quantitative subjects. Core Tutors are upper-level students in the College with exceptional academic records or graduate students – many of them former Teaching Assistants in the Core science course.

Email: writing-program@uchicago.edu | Website: college.uchicago.edu/academics/college-core-tutor-program

Student Disability Services

Student Disability Services (SDS) works in collaboration with UChicago faculty and staff to provide resources, support, and accommodations to ensure that all aspects of student life are accessible and inclusive of persons with disabilities. SDS supports students by discussing access needs, confidentially receiving and storing documentation to support student's eligibility for disability services and accommodations, collaborating with faculty and staff regarding essential accommodations, and promoting disability equity and inclusion on campus.

Email: disabilities@uchicago.edu | Director: Charnessa Warren | Website: disabilities.uchicago.edu

Career Advancement

Career Advancement prepares College students and recent alumni to find fulfilling careers in their field of interest. They do this by partnering with employers of all locations and industries, ranging from neighborhood nonprofits to multinational corporations, to connect them with UChicago talent.

Email: careeradvancement@uchicago.edu | Executive Director: Meredith Daw | Website: careeradvancement.uchicago.edu

College Center for Research and Fellowships

The College Center for Research and Fellowships (CCRF) promotes academic excellence by empowering undergraduates to pursue two transformative educational experiences: undergraduate research and nationally competitive fellowships. CCRF promotes meaningful connections between faculty and students, encourages faculty mentorship, provides high-impact, developmental advising, and educates the UChicago community about these opportunities for all undergraduates and recent alumni.

Email: ccrf@uchicago.edu | Director: Nichole Fazio | Website: ccrf.uchicago.edu

The Jeff Metcalf Internship Grant

The Jeff Metcalf Fellowship Grant provides funding for summer internships in any industry. Remote internships, as well as short-term and small-scale projects are eligible for grant funding.

Email: careeradvancement@uchicago.edu | Director, External Relations: Ruthie Robinson | Website: careeradvancement.uchicago.edu

UChicago Institutes and Centers

Explore UChicago's 140+ institutes and centers. Email: collegeprogrammingoffice@uchicago.edu

Center for Identity + Inclusion

The Center for Identity + Inclusion – home to the Office of Multicultural Student Affairs, LGBTQ Student Life, and Student Support Services – is located at 5710 S. Woodlawn Ave. These three areas work individually and collectively to enhance the experiences of students of color, LGBTQ students, and FLI students (first-generation, lower-income, and immigrant/undocumented students). Programs and resources are offered at both the undergraduate and graduate/professional levels to advance the University's commitment to building a more inclusive campus and stronger sense of community.

Email: inclusion@uchicago.edu | Director: Ravi Randhava | Website: inclusion.uchicago.edu

Office of International Affairs

The Office of International Affairs (OIA) provides advising services and supportive programming to the international community at the University of Chicago. Dedicated OIA advisers are available by email or phone, via virtual drop-in sessions and by appointment to support student and family needs.

Email: international-affairs@uchicago.edu | Executive Director: Nick Seamons | Website: internationalaffairs.uchicago.edu

Study Abroad Office

UChicago Study Abroad encourages students to expand their education through diverse intellectual perspectives, active participation in a new culture, and critical, first-hand engagement with local and global challenges. Through faculty-led, direct enrollment, and summer grant programs, Chicago students gain cultural fluency and hone language skills while studying a civilization at its center or focusing on a particular theme. Participants remain registered in the College, receive academic credit, and retain financial aid eligibility, making Study Abroad a fully integrated component of UChicago undergraduate education.

Email: studyabroad@uchicago.edu | Director: Elana Kranz | Website: study-abroad.uchicago.edu

Chicago Studies

Chicago Studies makes it easier for students and instructors in the College to study, teach, and learn about our amazing city. As part of the Office of Research and Teaching Innovations in the College Dean's Office, Chicago Studies offers excursions into the city and other Chicago-related programming; sponsors Chicago-engaged classes; provides advising and direct support to students doing Chicago-focused scholarship; and consult with faculty and other course instructors who want to engage the city's diverse communities in their teaching and research.

Email: chicagostudies@uchicago.edu | Executive Director: Chris Skrable | Website: chicagostudies.uchicago.edu

Housing & Residence Life

Housing & Residence Life helps develop and support inclusive communities that engage residents in exceptional living experiences within secure and well-maintained environments that foster a sense of belonging and support the academic initiatives of the University. This sense of community is encouraged and maintained by dedicated resident staff, including Resident Heads (RHs), who make themselves available to students for guidance and support; Resident Assistants (RAs) who have been active in campus life and are eager to support students and suggest advisers, courses and faculty, campus resources, and extracurricular opportunities; and Resident Dean's (RDs), who act as intellectual stewards for their cluster of houses, working in tandem with RHs and RAs to provide residents with an experience outside of the classroom that is both complementary and valuable to their continued intellectual and personal growth as young scholars.

Email: housing@uchicago.edu | Executive Director: David Hibbler, Jr. | Website: college.uchicago.edu/housing-residence-life

Recognized Student Organizations

University of Chicago is home to over 350 Recognized Student Organizations (RSOs). RSOs are a vital part of the campus community at the University of Chicago and host a number of campus traditions throughout the year. Each student organization works with an advisor from the Center for Leadership and Involvement to help achieve their goals and provide quality co-curricular experiences for their members.

Email: jimbrown@uchicago.edu | Director: Jimmy Brown | Website: leadership.uchicago.edu/get-involved/recognized-student-organizations-rso

UChicago Mentoring Program

The UChicago Mentoring Program (UCMP) strives to foster community on campus through peer mentorship. UCMP provides incoming first-year and transfer students with upper-level mentors to aid in their transition to College.

Email: college-programming@uchicago.edu | Senior Director, College Programs and Orientation: Preston Reilly | Website: college.uchicago.edu/student-life/ucmp

Center for Leadership & Involvement

The Center for Leadership and Involvement is a multi-faceted office that encourages student involvement at the University of Chicago and provides a portfolio of valuable and diverse learning opportunities to enhance the university's unique culture. The Center supports the College community by advising the 400 Recognized Student Organizations (RSOs), providing financial support and advice for the RSOs, and facilitating leadership development opportunities for all students.

Email: jimbrown@uchicago.edu | Director: Jimmy Brown | Website: leadership.uchicago.edu

Office of Civic Engagement

UChicago's Office of Civic Engagement offers several programs, including the Neighborhood Schools Program (NSP) and the University Community Service Center (UCSC), that help students learn from and make a meaningful impact in Chicago's diverse communities. Through NSP, students provide direct education and enrichment to pre-K to 12th-grade students in their local schools and communities, working as paid employees or volunteers in a variety of roles across these settings, including as classroom assistants and tutors. Through UCSC, students are connected to a broad spectrum of civic engagement opportunities with commitment levels tailored to a range of interests. Along with providing short- and long-term volunteer opportunities, UCSC supports students by offering student civic and social justice education, civic advising on student-led projects and initiatives, connections to civic-focused jobs and internships, and Chicago-centered experiential learning.

Email: civicengagement@uchicago.edu | Director, Office of Student Civic Engagement: Nick Currie; Director, Neighborhood School Partnerships: Brandi Snodgrass | Website: civicengagement.uchicago.edu

UGo Daytime and NightRide Shuttles

As part of the University of Chicago's commitment to safe and reliable transportation, the UGo Shuttle Program is a free shuttle service for all students. Daytime Shuttles and NightRide Shuttles are available to safely transport students on and around the greater campus area. The shuttles run year-round, except on University-observed holidays.

Email: bus@uchicago.edu | Director of Transportation & Parking Services: Beth Tindel | Website: safety-security.uchicago.edu/en/transportation/shuttle-services

Athletics & Recreation

UChicago students have access to an impressive array of sports and fitness facilities, programs, and services through Athletics & Recreation. Whether you take a fitness class through FitChicago, play on an intramural team with your housemates, represent the University as a varsity athlete, or cheer on your classmates as they compete, Athletics & Recreation facilitates wellness and fosters school spirit among all Maroons.

Email: athleticdirector@uchicago.edu | Director of Athletics: Angie Torain, Senior Associate Athletic Director for Recreation and Fitness: Brian Bock | Website: athletics.uchicago.edu

Spiritual Life

Spiritual Life serves as a destination of students to explore all things spiritual and religious on campus. Spiritual Life offers places, metaphorical and literal, to connect, understand, ask and explore. The office encourages integrative spiritual practice, offering programs that cross traditional religious boundaries, as well as supports members of particular traditions. Spiritual Life offers campus-wide programs like Spirit Week to celebrate spiritual diversity on campus, in addition to hosting weekly Jumu'ah prayers, meditation, and yoga classes.

Email: spirit@uchicago.edu | Director: Jigna Shah | Website: rockefeller.uchicago.edu

UChicago Student Wellness

UChicago Student Wellness provides students with comprehensive health, counseling, and wellness services to support their academic, personal, and professional success. UChicago Student Wellness believes that wellness is essential for academic success.

Email: healthpromotion@lists.uchicago.edu | Assistant Vice President: Meeta Kumar | Website: wellness.uchicago.edu

College Student Support in the Office of the Dean of Students

The Office of the Dean of Students offers individualized services that support students, their academic success, and their holistic development.

Email: kbucholz@uchicago.edu | Deputy Dean of Students and Chief of Staff: Koryna Bucholz |

Website: college.uchicago.edu/student-services/college-dean-students

Dean-on-Call Program

UChicago's Dean-On-Call Program ensures that a University administrator is available 24/7, responsible for providing students, family, friends, and community members referrals, information, and support. When called upon, the Dean-on-Call will assist in providing emotional support, getting medical care or mental health resources, reporting a crime to the police, performing well-being checks, identifying community resources for adjusting to living arrangements, helping to manage academic obligations, confidentially reporting concerns, and identifying community resources for legal assistance. The 24/7 service can be reached by calling UCPD at 773.702.8181 and asking for the Dean-on-Call, or through the UChicago Safe app.

Associate Dean of Students in the University for Student Affairs; Director, UChicago HELP: Belinda Cortez Vazquez |

Website: csl.uchicago.edu/get-help/uchicago-help/dean-on-call-program

Office of the Bursar

The Office of the Bursar is available to assist students and families successfully manage their student account. They assist with tuition and fees information, billing and payment options, and provide online account services.

Email: bursar@uchicago.edu | Senior Director: Barbara Ebert-Balzano | Website: bursar.uchicago.edu

Student Ombuds Office

UChicago's Ombud Office consists of neutral representatives that offer informal and confidential assistance to students in resolving University related concerns, whether it involves another student, a staff member, an administrator, or faculty member. The Ombuds is independent of administrative structures, allowing for impartial and objective consideration of all sides of an issue and best judgment to identify options and strategies for resolutions. While not an advocate or lawyer, the Ombuds can advise students of their rights and responsibilities within the University while providing a safe space to explore concerns that arise.

Email: ombudsperson@uchicago.edu | Student Staff Representative: Min Lee | Website: ombudsperson.uchicago.edu

UChicago Financial Aid

To ensure that cost does not prevent a student from joining the community, Financial Aid counselors are available year-round to work with students and families in order to create a comprehensive, need-based financial aid package.

Email: college-aid@uchicago.edu | College Aid Director: James Heller | Website: financialaid.uchicago.edu

Veteran Services and ROTC

UChicago offers a holistic approach to Veterans Services, ranging from admissions support to dedicated career counseling and programming, academic advising, social and family-inclusive programming, comprehensive financial aid, accommodating housing, and student support services. UChicago is proudly recognized nationally as a top school for veterans and our Veteran Scholars include representation from all five branches of the U.S. Military. UChicago hosts Air Force and Army ROTC programs and opportunities for students with interests in public service and careers in leadership as officers.

Email: bbutts@uchicago.edu | Executive Director: Beau Butts | Website: collegeadmissions.uchicago.edu/veterans

