FUNDAMENTALS: ISSUES AND TEXTS

SENIOR EXAMINATION FORM

For the academic year 2024–2025, this form is due no later than the end of the seventh week of the Winter quarter: Friday, February 21 at 5pm Central time.

The Senior Exam will begin promptly at 9am on Friday, April 25, and must be submitted by 9am on Monday, April 28. This is a firm departmental deadline, and advisers cannot request extensions on students' behalf. Deviations from this schedule may only be made in cases of serious illness or approved advance petition to the Fundamentals faculty chair for a religious or academic accommodation.

Petitions for religious or academic accommodations for the exam must be received by 5pm Central on Friday, March 28. Petitions must document need, including an accommodation letter from Student Disability Services, if applicable.

I. Primary Information

    Name:

    Email:

    Date:

    Current Fundamentals Adviser:

    JP Adviser (if different from above):

    JP Title and Text:

II. Question Question
Ordinarily, your "question question" is formulated by your Faculty Adviser. If there is another Fundamentals faculty member with whom you have worked closely who may be more suited to writing this question, please list that individual below.

1. Examiner:

2. If your examiner is different from your Faculty Adviser, in what capacity have you worked with them (course, JP, etc.)?

3. Question Statement (1–2 pages, single-spaced, attached separately)

III. Text List
List the six texts on which you may be examined and the faculty member who will write the related question. Specify which one was studied in its original, non-Anglophone language (if necessary, this may be a seventh text that satisfies your language requirement). On a separate page, write a paragraph for each explaining your interest in the text and how it fits into the intellectual project expressed in your Question Statement.
